MEET OUR STUDENTS
Here’s a snapshot of who we offer

Our students are emerging as the next generation of leaders, creators, game-changers and innovators. They know what it takes to shine and achieve excellence in today’s ever-changing, competitive market.

Industry feedback tells us our students and graduates are enthusiastic, knowledgeable and ready for the workplace. Shaped by graduate attributes, international exchange experiences and industry placement units throughout their degrees, Curtin produces well-rounded and industry-ready graduates.

The students have brought a fresh perspective with new and exciting ideas of how to engage with the wider community.

Curtin’s courses are developed with careers in mind

Our students develop knowledge and capabilities through flipped classes, technology-enriched environments which integrate new media literacy, and distributed learning techniques – meaning our students are continuously adapting to the technological advancements and industry changes that owe to globalisation.

Students arrive prepared, with a real understanding of the environment they can be expected to work within.

Curtin Extra

Curtin Extra validates stand-out students who have strived for personal and professional development throughout their time at university.

Curtin Extra recognises students that have undertaken work integrated learning and volunteering, have gained real-world leadership experience, and developed cultural competence on an extra-curricular basis.

We’re also a multi-campus University, stretching across Australia and into Malaysia, Singapore, Mauritius and the United Arab Emirates. We also have links to institutions in the United Kingdom, Hong Kong, China, Sri Lanka and Vietnam. This means we can put you in touch with diverse and culturally-engaged talent wherever you may be.

Our campus has variety

We understand in today’s connected environment, international perspective can be highly valuable.

Did you know, almost one quarter of our students come from a country outside of Australia?

These students could possess a level of awareness that may help you differentiate against competitors and also help you approach business in new ways.
Timing Your Strategy

Plan your approach

Timing can impact the exposure, response and results of your recruitment strategy.

If you’re interested in connecting with Curtin students we would recommend getting in touch as soon as possible.

ENGAGE WITH TALENT ON CAMPUS
Shape your reputation

Building connections with students begins with regular visits and events on campus. These can help excite students about your organisation and industry, in-person at specialised events.

Meeting Curtin talent on campus allows you to shape your reputation, share industry expectations, and also hear about what students are searching for in employers.

We can help you build mutually-beneficial relationships with Curtin talent through a range of platforms on campus. Whether you’re looking to create a small or large engagement strategy, we have no cost and fee-based packages – there are options to suit every budget.

Tip: A three week window between contacting the team and your event date ensures your campaign receives the level of attention and engagement it deserves.

SHARE YOUR OPPORTUNITIES
Using our exclusive channels

We encourage you to advertise internships, work placements, graduate positions and programs, and volunteer roles across our online job and event portals for free.

Curtin’s online career portals, UniHub and Global Careers are easy to navigate and offer a range of employer recruitment services. They are your direct and exclusive link to a pool of high-calibre individuals and aspiring professionals.

Recruitment opportunities

Bring your recruitment net a little closer to the source, and select from a talent-pool of students and graduates who have developed the skills and capabilities your organisation is looking for. Avoid traditional and costly job boards that send your advertisement across a wide net of people – some of whom might not even be qualified or a cultural “fit” with your organisation.

Why use UniHub for your recruitment strategy?

- Gain regular online access to Curtin students and recent graduates, who are in search of paid and unpaid opportunities.

- Registration and use is free, and you’re able to set up and manage opportunities on any digital platform

- We’ll also use this channel to call for registrations to your on-campus events

- We can track your impact through this channel

Why use Global Careers for international recruiting?

- It’s an innovative online interface separate to UniHub, connecting overseas recruiters with Curtin’s brightest student talent.

- Registration and use is free, and you are able to set up and manage your opportunities on any digital platform

- Target students and graduates seeking employment in their home countries and languages

- Access a wide talent-pool based on student’s course of study, citizenship, and employment rights

- Your recruitment campaign will be put directly in front of the Curtin students and alumni that you want to hire, with job seekers notified of suitable opportunities by automated job alerts

- We can track your impact through this channel

"The Curtin UniHub system is easy to use and we have always obtained the results we wanted."

WORK EXPERIENCE FOR STUDENTS
Scout for talent early

Curtin students understand in order to stand out from the pack in today’s highly-competitive market, they need to engage with employers early in their careers through work placements and internships.

Offering work experience

Offering work experience can provide development opportunities for your current staff, and also help to raise your profile in the community.

These are unpaid opportunities that don’t form part of a student’s curriculum and are often undertaken to boost their chances for graduate employment.

When offering these opportunities, they should be relevant to the student’s area of study and be accompanied by a moderate level of supervision.

We accept placements covering a maximum of 112.5 hours or an equivalent of 15 full time days in the workplace.

The team also facilitates volunteering opportunities in not-for-profit and charitable organisations.

Offering course placements

These are vocational (curricular) placements (an assessed requirement of a student’s studies) and are typically pursued by enthusiastic and driven students.

Internship time frames are often guided by unit guidelines – you should check these with the student upon agreement.

It’s rare to find such a free link to ready-made professionals. It was of great benefit to our Agency.

Work placement insurance

We are happy to organise work placement insurance should a student or graduate require this. The team also provides insurance for international placement opportunities.

Contact us to find out more about how you can participate in work experience programs.

Interested in building a long-lasting, memorable impression at Curtin? You could do this by making your brand consistently visible through sponsorship across events, digital channels as well as Careers, Employment & Leadership.

Sponsorship ensures you gain a greater level of brand awareness and additional exposure through a variety of channels. As a bonus, it’s also a less intrusive way to market your organisation – a subtle way of leaving an impression in the minds of students and graduates.

Sponsor our annual Careers Fairs

The Curtin Careers Fairs are among the most high-profile events on the University calendar; attracting 2,600+ students annually.

Our platinum and VIP packages are your chance to gain an advantage:

- Prime visibility on the day
- Prominent stand locations
- Publications featuring your company logo (UniHub and Careers for Tomorrow)
- Continued promotion after the Career Fairs on social platforms

Sponsor our programs

Curtin’s Careers, Employment & Leadership and Community Programs teams deliver a variety of events and services that support both our students and the wider community. These include high profile programs such as John Curtin Leadership Academy, Next Step Mentoring, and John Curtin Weekend. We welcome enquiries from organisations wishing to sponsor these programs to ensure their continued provision to the Curtin community.
